BIOGRAPHY

Oleg Adolfovich LYALIN was born on 24 Jun 38 at Staropol. His father was an agricultural engineer, who suffered expulsion from the Party in 1937, fought with partisans during World War II and thereafter until his death in 1952 worked in the Chief Planning Department of the City Council of Pyatigorsk.

2. In 1954, LYALIN entered the Higher Marine School in Odessa. He graduated from the school as an officer of the merchant fleet in 1959. In 1957, however, he had been recruited as a KGB informant working against western seamen and smugglers in Odessa. In 1958/59 the KGB, after trying him out in an exercise, offered him a job in the illegal net. He was sent to 101 school of the KGB. He passed his 2-year course in 18 months and was then lodged in a private flat for further training.

3. Owing to the breakdown of his first marriage, the plan to place him in illegal work was cancelled and he spent the next 4 years in the KGB, KLAIPEDA, on security work against foreign seamen.

4. In February 1967 LYALIN was sent on a 6 month course at the Department 'V' School near Moscow, where he studied partisan warfare, radio communications, explosives and parachuting. After 18 months of further training and briefing LYALIN was posted to London in April 1969.

5. LYALIN is a captain in the KGB and a Party member since 1960. His motives are personal - dissatisfaction with his career and prospects and a desire to marry the wife of one of his colleagues, who defected with him.

DEFECTION OF KGB OFFICER

On 3 September, 1971, Oleg Adolfovich LYALIN, a 34 year old officer of the Soviet Committee for State Security (KGB) defected to the Security Service. He had been en poste in London since April, 1969, under Soviet Trade Delegation cover as the representative of the RAZNO EXPORT AGENCY mainly concerned with knitwear.

2. LYALIN served in Department V. (formerly known as the 13th Department) of the KGB which is charged primarily with the planning and preparation of sabotage operations that would be mounted in periods of great tension and in wartime. According to LYALIN, Department V. has been represented in London since 1960 and in recent years there have been two Department V. officers en poste. LYALIN was the senior of these two officers and because the work is highly secret and specialised, he reported direct to the head KGB legal resident.

3. In his intelligence role, LYALIN's task was to make contingency plans for sabotage against military, political and economic targets in the United Kingdom. Although according to LYALIN specific targets have not yet been allocated as between the KGB and the Chief Intelligence Directorate (GRU) and LYALIN had not been given his own targets, he expected that KGB targets would include public utilities, the railways, Government and military communications, Government offices and shelters, the Civil Defence organisation and emergency food supplies.

4. LYALIN was in the process of selecting and reporting on sites to be used for the infiltration by air and sea of Soviet sabotage groups into the UK during the period of crisis preceding the outbreak of conventional war. He had submitted a comprehensive plan for the seaborne landing of a group (or groups) on the North Yorkshire coast and consideration was being given to the selection of a dropped zone for an airborne landing north of the Caledonian Canal. He was also building up a group of UK domiciled agents. The group which had already been equipped with a radio, was, when the time came, to have provided LYALIN with a self-contained operational base and to have been used to prepare for and subsequently to support the arrival and operations of the Soviet sabotage groups.

5. From what LYALIN has said, there can be little doubt that whilst taking account of the risks of attribution and escalation, the Department V. are making dispositions to commence sabotage operations in the UK in a period of possibly prolonged crisis, leading up^{to} the outbreak of war. During such a period, a variety of sabotage measures would be taken, including in their objectives the demoralisation of the civilian population and the complete disruption of the political and economic life of the country.

6. According to LYALIN, the KGB has not engaged in industrial sabotage in the UK in peacetime. However, on one occasion a proposal was submitted to headquarters for an operation to contaminate Holy Loch with radio active material with a view to implicating US Naval forces.

Every Department V. operation during peacetime requires the approval of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union and approval was not given in this instance.

7. In addition to his Department V. work he gave support to his KGB colleagues in their agent running operations.

8. There is so far no reason to doubt the reliability of LYALIN as a source and the accuracy of the information provided by him.

Memorandum

TO : SAC, New York (65-14825)

DATE: 2/4/72

FROM : Director, FBI (100-354839)

SUBJECT: SPIA
ESP - R

Enclosed for each office are copies of two communications from [redacted] dated 1/17/72 and 1/28/72, classified "~~Secret~~," which report information furnished to the [redacted] by Oleg A. Lyalin.

The intelligence identifications made by Lyalin confirm a number of identifications which we have previously made; however, there are also a substantial number of new identifications of personnel. Initial review indicates that a number of these latter individuals reside within Soviet establishments and we have, therefore, not developed a sufficient amount of information about their activities to date to confirm or negate Lyalin's identifications. This initial review indicates that some of these individuals may well have either security or radio monitoring assignments within Soviet establishments.

Based on the data received to date, the Bureau does not believe that we should designate any Soviet as a known intelligence officer solely on the basis of the limited data furnished to date by Lyalin. Where there has been no prior indication of intelligence connection, it is felt that the Lyalin information is sufficient basis for designating an individual as a suspected intelligence officer. Such designations will also entail changes in investigative priorities, at least from Priority III to Priority II and perhaps in selected cases to Priority I.

Information in the enclosed [redacted] communications' should be channelized by your office to appropriate case files noting the source of the information, its date and classification. The data furnished by Lyalin should be specifically addressed in the analysis section of the first progress letter submitted subsequent to its receipt. After analysis of the information has been made, an LHM should be prepared under the caption of each Soviet listed. The LHM should be captioned in the following manner: [REDACTED] "GOLDFINCH." This LHM should be brief. It should identify the Soviet and should then contain one of the three following paragraphs:

- (1) Based upon available information and/or investigation, Goldfinch's identification of captioned subject as an officer of the KGB would appear to be valid.
- (2) Based upon available information and/or investigation, no information has been developed which would confirm Goldfinch's identification of captioned subject as a KGB officer; however, such identification is not considered improbable.
- (3) Based upon available information and/or investigation, Goldfinch's identification of captioned subject as an officer of the KGB is not considered to be valid. If Goldfinch could elaborate on that identification, such information would be appreciated.

The instructions outlined above should be furnished to all Special Agents in your office assigned cases on Soviet officials.

SUBJECT: OLEG A. LYALIN
IS - R

ReBulet 2/4/72, captioned "SPIA" [REDACTED] attached, enclosed two copies of communications from [REDACTED] dated 1/17/72 and 1/28/72, classified "~~SECRET~~", which set forth the identifications of LYALIN upon viewing photographs of Soviet officials in the US as of 8/12/71.

b7D

The subject placed these Soviets in two categories, those whom he had seen in KGB Headquarters and those whose photographs appeared familiar to him. Agents receiving copies of this memorandum are instructed to comply with Bureau instructions in attached relet. In the interest of uniformity and for purposes of analysis, those Agents who have a Soviet in Category #1 are requested to prepare five copies of an undated LHM, classified "~~SECRET~~", and submit to the Supervisor of Section 341 by 2/25/72. By way of identification it is believed that the Soviet's date of birth and official position in the US should be sufficient.

Category #1.

The source was shown a photograph of [REDACTED], NYfile 105-[REDACTED], and identified him as a KGB Officer. The identification was based almost entirely on source having seen this individual at KGB Headquarters in Moscow during his frequent visits there between 1962 and 1969.

Category #2.

The source was shown a photograph of [REDACTED], NYfile 105-[REDACTED], and commented the face was familiar but was unable to say whether in a KGB context or not.
